The Havana Business Improvement District is pleased to announce that its new business directory is now online at www.onhavanastreet.com. The new directory contains listings for over 400 merchants On Havana Street with full color pictures of each business, hours of operation, phone and fax numbers, links to the merchants' own websites, and fully navigational Google Earth maps. The Havana BID staff, board members and merchants have spent the last couple of months working together on this comprehensive directory in an effort to build a stronger, better community On Havana Street. The new directory will help you discover fun, new things to do and enable you to quickly find the goods and services you need-it's all just a click away!
