The Village East Neighborhood Association's "Change is Coming" group teamed up with the business owners in the Havana Business Improvement District in a community food drive to replenish the pantry at Aurora Interchurch Task Force, 1553 Clinton Street. On Friday, January 9, over 100 bags of nonperishable food items, as well as clothing and hand-made quilts were delivered by the group in four truckloads. The food had been collected over the previous month at Dumitri's Restaurant, Suss Buick Pontiac GMC and Budget Car Sales on Havana Street, as well as by neighbors along Havana.
