STREET

On Havana Street and the city of Aurora's Art in Public Places program are proud to partner to bring the Sixth Annual Art 2C on Havana sculpture exhibit and competition. Thirteen sculptures will be exhibited in the Havana Business Improvement District's Havana Motor Mile, which is spread along Havana Street from 6th Avenue to Dartmouth.

The exhibition provides residents and visitors a unique way to experience the Business District. Public art such as this boosts real estate values and creates opportunities for local businesses to thrive.

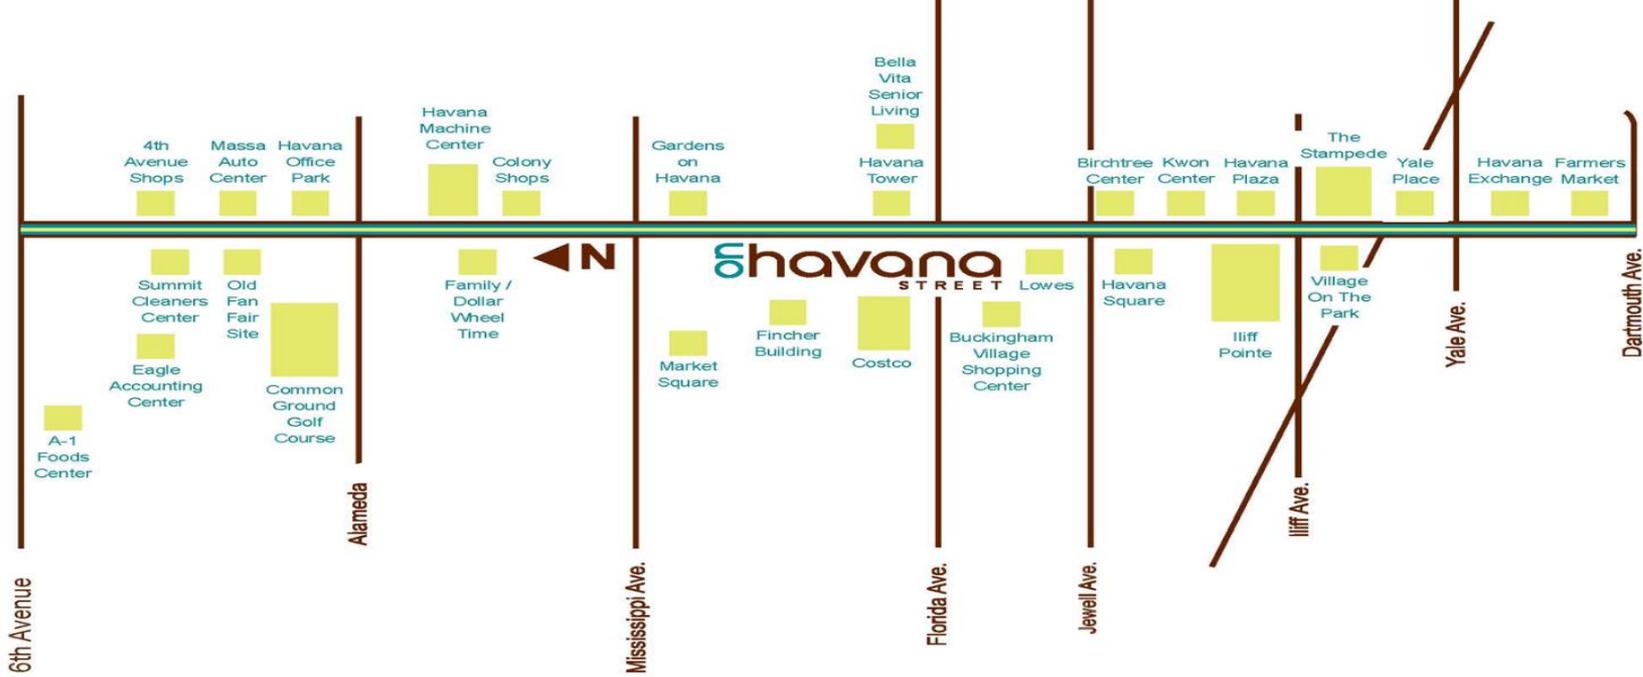

Thank you for supporting and shopping On Havana Street.

- Focus on unique, culturally diverse events and fun new things to do
- Provides programming & benefits to business and commercial properties
- Economic development, establishing a district identity for the area and advocacy programs

The Havana Business Improvement District - On Havana Street's global corridor runs 4.3 miles from 6th Avenue to Dartmouth Avenue on Havana Street.

On Havana Street and the city of Aurora's Art in Public Places Program are proud to partner to bring the 8th Annual Art 2C on Havana. This year brings thirteen sculptures. The art is spread along Havana Street from East First Avenue to East Yale Avenue.

The exhibition provides residents and visitors a unique way to experience the Havana Business Improvement District. Public art such as this boosts real estate values and creates opportunities for local businesses to thrive.

1 | "PETITE COULEUR"

Artist: Charlotte Zink
Berthoud, Colo.
Media: Steel and Enamel
96" x 48" x 36" • $10,000

Concorde Healthcare Training • 111 Havana St.

Since 1998, Charlotte's focus has been on metals with her partner, Ben; together they create Zink Metal Art. Zink offers a fluid sense of design and form, Ben engineers and fabricates their sculptural concepts and designs.

2 | "TRADITION"

Artist: Dale Montagne
Canyon City, Colo.
Media: Mild Steel
9' x 3.5' x 3.5' • $30,000

Havana Machine 800 S. Havana St.

Henderson firmly believes that he does not choose his assignments but rather that they come to him and then he completes the sculpture. He also adds that his art is meant to inform and to entertain the viewer.

3 | "LYRIC"

Artist: John Wilbar
Pueblo, Colo.
Media: Wood, Acrylic Stucco,
Fiber Glass and Paint
7.5' x 2.3' x 22" • $5,400

Main Street at the Gardens on Havana

Wilbar's work is a continuous sculptural form that feature geometric abstractions, bold colors, deep shadows and a depth of field one can visually step into.

4 | "OUTRIGGER"

Artist: Andrew Libertone
Denver
Media: Powder Coated Steel
91" x 32" x 24" • $7,500

Suss Buick GMC 1301 S. Havana St.

Libertone executes his ideas in sculpture and drawings. His motivation for the sculptures he creates originate from his love of jazz music, architecture, industrial and auto based imagery.

5 | "TIME & SPACE"

Artist: Dale Montagne
Silverthorne, Colo.
Media: Stainless Steel
and Bronze
5' x 4' x 6" • $21,000

Havana Tower 1450 S. Havana St.

Montagne's creative personality evolved through specialized training and practical application driven by an insatiable desire to explore.

6 | "ABUNDANCE"

Artist: Charlotte Zink
Berthoud, Colo.
Media: Core Ten and Hot
Rolled Steel
68" x 39" x 12" • $8,000

Bella Vita Active Senior Living • 1470 S. Havana St.

For Zink, making art objects is her way of translating inner visions and thought processes into a tangible outer reality, something we can look at, touch, appreciate and share with others.

7 | "LAST LOVE"

Artist: Patrick Sullivan
Pine Valley, Utah
Media: Granite
4' x 2' x 2' • $9,500

Mark Vissering State Farm 1852 S. Havana St.

Sullivan describes his art as "lyrical symbolism" where "the power is in the stone." His wife, Sharon, inspired this sculpture which is dedicated to lovers everywhere.

8 | "LA CATRINA #4"

Artist: Victoria Patti
Arvada, Colo.
Media: Recycled Steel
8' x 3' x 3' • $6,500

Molcajete Mexican Restaurant 1911 S. Havana St.

Influenced by European artistic blacksmith, Patti seeks out subjects that enable her to express textures, curves and colors that draw the eye to the piece.

9 | "NATURE"
 Artist: Jodie Bliss
 Monument, Colo.
 Media: Bronze
 58" x 43" x 13" • $7,500

M-Mart
2000 S. Havana St.

Bliss particularly admires the way that public art can be intertwined with a community.

12 | "FIDDLE STICKS"
 Artist: Justin Deister
 Louisville, Colo.
 Media: Wood, Stucco
 and Paint
 64" x 40" x 14" • $9,000

2700 S. Havana St.

As an artist, Deister mentions he becomes a kind of co-creator and shares the purpose of art - to express, develop relationships, bridge culture, time and distance and generate meaningful connections.

10 | "SPIRAL DANCER"
 Artist: Harold Linke
 Evergreen, Colo.
 Media: Steel with Titanium
 Based Polymer Finish
 144" x 46" x 57" • $9,845

Autawash
2291 S. Havana St.

Linke's love for geometry is seen in his sculptures. He is hooked on curves, they form the emotion and dominant shapes for all his sculptures.

13 | "VISIONING #1"
 Artist: Christopher Thomson
 Ribera, N.M.
 Media: Forged Steel and
 Purple and Red Powder Coat
 116" x 24" x 24" • $16,000

Bicycle Village
2802 S. Havana St.

Thomson's life experiences blending with the rich tradition of his craft, quietly pushed his sculpture work into unanticipated directions.

11 | "SPIRIT SET FREE"
 Artist: Jodie Bliss
 Monument, Colo.
 Media: Hand Forged Steel
 90" x 55" x 14" • $12,000

The Stampede
2430 S. Havana St.

Bliss is inspired by the culmination of research and invested interest within the following areas: strong women leaders, cultural ceremonies and design traditions.
