Food Vendor Booths: Deadline is Friday, May 24, 2019!

The food vendor is responsible for completing the Tri-County Health Department's application packet for temporary food events. Tri-County Health Dept Link: <http://www.tchd.org/444/Temporary-Food-Events>

DEADLINE: The food vendor is required to return the application packet and fees to Tri-County Health Department 30 days prior to the event (May 8, 2019). If you do not have your application filed with Tri County with a copy submitted to Jeff Waldman at the address below along with your vendor booth application, you will not be eligible for food booth space at Cruzin' Havana. Subletting Food Booth Space will not be permitted.

Vendor Property & Liability: Vendors exhibit at his/her own risk. The event will be policed by uniformed officers, but the vendor understands and expressly agrees that the Havana Business Improvement District (Havana BID) and the Collector Car Council of Colorado (CCCC) are not responsible for providing specific security or protection for vendor property and are not responsible or liable in any way damages or other losses occurring to said property.

Licensing & Taxes:

- The vendor is responsible for all sales, use, employment and other taxes.
- If the vendor is selling items, the vendor must have a valid sales tax license, and any other license(s) that may be required by the City of Aurora.

- If the vendor is selling food items, they need to follow the rules and regulations of the Tri-County Health Department (see the food vendor booth paragraph above).

Insurance:

- Each vendor should contact his or her insurance company to ensure that vendor is covered during the event.
- All vendors agree to hold the Havana BID and CCCC, and their respective directors, officers, and employees harmless for any claims, demands, damages and liability whatsoever arising on account of or in any way arising out of the event.

Fire regulations: All vendors must comply with all applicable fire code regulations.

No Cancellation: The event will proceed as scheduled, even in the event of inclement weather.

Vendor Booth Location:

- The Havana BID and the CCCC reserve the right to make last-minute changes in the booth layouts and/or locations on the day of the event, if the need arises.
- You will receive your festival site and booth number assignment in your confirmation call or email.
- You can indicate your preference of festival sites on the bottom of this registration form, but booth assignments will be made on a first come, first served basis.
- Booth numbers and festival site locations cannot be changed by the vendor on the day of the event; any vendor who changes booth numbers or festival sites on their own will be asked to pack it up and go home.
- All trash must be removed by vendors.

Use the booth reservation form on the next page to reserve your booth space. Vendors simply showing up on the date of the event without previously registering will not be allowed to set up.
