

Reimagine and Reopen

Back to work essentials to keep team members and visitors safe.

CONTENTS

Preparing for a post-pandemic world is one of the first steps businesses can take as they evolve the way they think and how they conduct day-to-day business amid COVID-19. Historically, many companies have had very limited health and wellness signage onsite. Moving forward, most organizations will need to put careful thought and care into placing updated posters and signs throughout their facilities to keep visitors safe from COVID-19 transmission, and to comply with local health department mandates.

Designed for organizations that are operating amid COVID-19, this collection features a variety of posters, signs, and floor graphics that provide crucial information to team members and visitors.

From Site Survey to Install

ARC and Riot are working hard to support you as your organization prepares to reopen for business.

As you focus on core business initiatives and reopening your doors, let ARC and Riot's project managers help prepare your facility for the arrival of your employees, customers, and guests. Like an extra teammate, we'll handle the site survey, printing, and installation of your health and wellness graphics, making it easier to maintain a healthy environment, promote good hygiene, and prevent the spread of COVID-19.

Tight Spaces

Most hallways, elevators, and stairwells tend to be narrow or enclosed areas, making it difficult to maintain proper social distancing. To address this, many organizations are adapting their floorplans to accommodate one-way foot traffic and are regulating the maximum number of guests within elevators and conference rooms. This selection of posters and floor decals will help you direct employees and visitors around your facility with clearly-labeled instructions and markers to maintain social distance standards.

Ideal for:

- Elevators
- Stairwells
- Hallways
- Conference rooms
