

Date: April 13, 2021

Media Contact: Julie Patterson
Senior Communications Strategist
303.739.6617
jpatters@auroragov.org

Aurora’s virtual Business Recognition Awards ceremony will air April 29

AURORA, Colo. – The city of Aurora in April will honor six outstanding local businesses at its 16th annual Aurora Business Recognition Awards ceremony happening virtually this year.

The annual ceremony normally happens in December but was delayed due to the ongoing pandemic.

The prerecorded virtual ceremony will air from 6 to 7:15 p.m. April 29 on AuroraTV.org, Aurora Comcast channels 8 or 880, and on Facebook.com/AuroraGov. For those who plan to view the ceremony, pre-registration is requested at <https://bit.ly/2PZtT7I> to provide attendees with an electronic program and event reminders prior to April 29.

The event will recognize outstanding local businesses that have demonstrated innovation and creativity, great community impact and tremendous resiliency during COVID-19. The Chuck Hahn Small Business Advocate of the Year also will be recognized.

About the Aurora Business Recognition Awards

The 2020 Business Recognition Award ceremony is hosted by the city’s Business Advisory Board. The program recognizes outstanding businesses that both benefit Aurora’s economy and invest their time, talents and finances locally. These businesses help Aurora thrive as a quality community. Past winners may be viewed at AuroraGov.org/BusinessAwards.

###